

“O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; his steadfast love endures forever!”

– Psalm 118:1

Isn't it reassuring to know that we can count on God's love to remain steadfast forever? I find this to be especially true during these uncertain economic times. Many of us put our trust in the stock market only to see it lose 52% during one of the worst bear markets in the last 80 years. The current economic climate has had a negative impact on the synod's endowment, which has declined 33% in value. The loss is steep enough that the endowment has fallen below its historical gift value (HGV).

Like many organizations and institutions that rely on endowments to fund their operations, the synod's financial resources for funding ongoing ministries and programs have been affected. In order to reduce the burden on already financially stressed programs, the Finance Committee suspended the third clause of the Endowment Spending Policy (available on the synod Web site) for one year for non-permanently restricted funds. Permanently restricted funds, including Mission 2000, will not be drawn on until they have regained their HGV. Forgoing the Mission 2000 draw will have a negative impact on the budget for the current and next fiscal years of $77,177 in each year.

The synod is fortunate to have the endowment, but we are also fortunate that we do not fully rely on it for funds. The ongoing ministries of the synod are primarily funded through the generous benevolence dollars sent from congregations.

Thank you for your faithful partnership in mission!

As you read through the other assembly reports of the synod ministries, committees and program staff, keep in mind that it is through your support that the synod is able to live into our mission of empowering, equipping, and encouraging the people of God to make Christ known. A year ago, we rejoiced that benevolence had increased 6.4%. Unfortunately, in the fiscal year just ended, benevolence decreased 2.6%. Shared benevolence for 2008-09 was $2,691,587 against a budget of $2,865,000. The current fiscal year is off to a slow start with February posting the lowest monthly benevolence total of any month in the preceding twelve years.

In light of the benevolence shortfall last year, the anemic start to the current fiscal year, and the overall economic climate, the synod Finance Committee, working with Bishop Stuck and the program staff, has reduced the budgeted benevolence projection for the current fiscal year from 3 million to 2.7 million dollars. This reduction, combined with the reduced endowment draw necessitated a corresponding reduction in expenses. In an already lean budget, this has been an especially painstaking process.

How do we respond to the call to be good and faithful stewards of the resources entrusted to us? How do we respond to the call to help every person be a Missionary, every pastor a Mission Director and every congregation, conference and ministry a Mission Center? How do we respond to the call to balance the immediate needs and commitments with the responsibility to invest in the future of the church? The 2010-11 budget which will come before the assembly in June will reflect the conversations surrounding these ongoing challenges.

We have a choice in how we respond to the challenges before us. We can choose to lament that the endowment is underwater and benevolence is declining. We can choose to lament that there do not appear to be adequate financial resources to enable the synod to realize its potential of funding the ministries and programs, as well as supporting the institutions that will help to bring about God's kingdom right here in Indiana and Kentucky. Or we can choose to rejoice because we are blessed with an endowment and it has not lost 52%.

We can choose to rejoice because congregations continue to provide benevolence support in the face of difficult economic times. We can choose to rejoice because we have confidence that God will provide, through each one of us individually and collectively, what is needed for the synod to do the work God wants us to do.

"This is the day that the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it." -Psalm 118:24

I invite you to rejoice, give thanks, and seize the opportunity to meet the challenges before us.

Respectfully submitted,

Kate Knoerzer,
I-K Synod Treasurer
