Spring Break

It's that time of the semester. After a couple of hard working months, students finally get a chance to kick back and relax a bit. Spring break is a time to reflect on where we have been this second semester and gear up for the last push before the end of the year. We look forward to getting back to business with renewed vigor!

LCM - A Fulfilling Ministry

Students involved with LCM are nourished in a variety of ways. Previous News-E-Letters have highlighted various ways LCM expands minds, deepens faith, inspires service, and provides an opportunity for fun, too!

But meeting these spiritual and emotional needs is only a part of what we do! LCM also offers regular opportunities for physical nourishment. They can count on multiple opportunities for free food. Monthly grad student brunches punctuate two weekly offerings of home cooked food. Students enjoy lunch following Sunday worship and gather at the Rose House each Wednesday for a warm dinner and conversation (Special thanks to the folks at Trinity Lutheran Church in Linton, IN for providing a recent meal!).

This important fellowship time helps build a stronger sense of community at LCM. We welcome your contribution to this valuable component of LCM's ministry.

Support Students From Your Congregation.

The Madness of March

We would be remiss to let the March issue of LCM's News-E-Letter to pass by without mention of the biggest event of the month – The NCAA Tournament. Get your brackets ready!

Each minister in your congregation is important. The work committee members have done thus far to create care packages and otherwise stay in touch means a great deal to the students. But don't forget to include your pastor! Knowing that campus ministries are a top producer of rostered leaders, there is a good chance your pastor had some contact with campus ministry while in college. This March, ask your pastor(s) to send each of the students from your congregation a note of support and encouragement. Students will appreciate knowing that they have support throughout your congregation!

March would also be a good time to lay some groundwork for some of a summer job. Some small business owners in your congregation could restructure their work environment and provide an opportunity for students to work at home for the summer.

And don't forget other ways you can help us continue to thrive:

- Keep LCM-IU in your personal and congregational prayers and share our story with others.
- Take a look at our "wish list" on our website. What can you provide?
- Provide resources so we can continue to offer a warm mid-week meal, meaningful worship, and comforts that make Rose House a "home away from home".
- Arrange service time for your church group to come to Bloomington and do a little handiwork around Rose House
